

You Wouldn't Believe What Happened to Me!
Andy Docos #2

Hey, how ya doing?

Great, you?

Great!

Why, what's going on?

You wouldn't believe what happened to me. This individual who I know that “, _____ for a living, very successful name is _____” is working on a new business venture in _____. Which is a product brokerage and Internet marketing co. They broker for manufacturers and move stuff on a mass scale. This could stand to be a multi-million dollar project. They were looking for the right people to organize it and they picked ME!! I am so excited I can hardly stand it. I am working on this project with these people alongside what I am currently doing .I can actually stand to match my current full-time pay over the next year or so. I am so excited, my wife and I can barely sleep at night. (Tell me more...)

The company brokers for manufacturers and moves there stuff on a mass scale, hey listen I can't promise you anything and I don't want to get your hopes up but do you keep your options open? I know these people are working on an expansion, why don't I tell them a little about you and maybe they will make the time to allow us to show you what's going on. I will call you back tomorrow.

(Next day after phone call to business partner)

You won't believe it. I told my business partner about you and he/she said it was okay to show you what's going on. In fact, on _____ night we secured a conference facility and we will be going over the details of what it involves. What I would like to do is pick you up and bring you along so you can meet everybody and we will see if it is a fit for you. We can take it from there.

(Secure the appointment and pick them up on time)
